post 9/22/72

Grapp Retirement Accepted by FBI

United Press International

Following back-to-back disputes with his new director, Wesley G. Grapp has decided to retire from the FBI rather than accept demotion from chief of the Los Angeles office to an ordinary special agent in Minneapolis.

In a five-page statement, acting FBI Director L. Patrick Gray III announced yesterday that Grapp's request to retire, effective Sept. 26, had been accepted.